

SAMPLE BIOGRAPHY: LINDSEY WILLIAMS – CITY COUNCIL – AT LARGE

Lindsey Williams was born in Boston and spent most of her childhood in Vermont and New Hampshire. A 1998 graduate of Hanover High School, Lindsey has a Bachelor of Arts in Biology from Colby College and a Master of Marine Policy from the University of Delaware. Lindsey and her husband live in Ward 4 and are the proud parents of a five year old and a two year old.

Lindsey has a background in research, teaching, and practice on ocean and coastal management issues, including 10 years in federal government service where her work focused on the nexus between a healthy environment and a robust economy. After looking for ways to become more involved in the Dover community, in 2016 she was named to the Stewardship of Resources Steering Committee which was tasked with writing a new chapter for the Dover Master Plan.

Tonight Lindsey begins her first term as Councilor At Large.
