

City of Dover
Tax Cap Over-ride History

| Fiscal Year | Over-ride | City (Under) OverTax Cap Levy           | School (Under) OverTax Cap Levy | City Council Adopted(Under) Over Tax Cap |
|-------------|-----------|---|-------------------------------------|--|
| 2009        | No        | At Tax Cap                                  | At Tax Cap                          | At Tax Cap                                   |
| 2010        | No        | 166,526                                     | ($900,592)                         | ($734,066)                                  |
| 2011        | Yes       | (NH Supreme Court had invalidated tax caps) |                                     |  |
| 2012        | No        | At Tax Cap                                  | At Tax Cap                          | At Tax Cap                                   |
| 2013        | No        | At Tax Cap                                  | At Tax Cap                          | At Tax Cap                                   |
| 2014        | No        | (75,641)                                    | 75,641                              | At Tax Cap                                   |
| 2015        | No        | At Tax Cap                                  | At Tax Cap                          | At Tax Cap                                   |
| 2016        | Yes       | ($22,815)                                  | $25,063                            | 2,248  |
| 2017        | Yes       | ($83,150)                                  | $621,351                           | 538,201                                      |
| 2018        | Yes       | ($71,258)                                  | $2,154,125                         | 2,082,867                                    |
| 2019        | Yes       | ($236,279)                                 | $2,214,910                         | 1,978,631                                    |
| 2020        | Yes       | ($447,340)                                 | $2,127,572                         | 1,680,232                                    |
| 2021        | No        | ($478,239)                                 | ($454)                             | (478,693)                                    |
| 2022        | No        | ($108,297)                                 | $108,297                           | At Tax Cap                                   |
| 2023        | Yes       | ($338,921)                                 | $3,504,027                         | 3,165,106                                    |
| 2024        | No        | ($249,462)                                 | $122,900                           | (126,562)                                    |
| 2025        | Yes       | ($178,646)                                 | $1,636,019                         | 1,457,373                                    |
|             |           | ($2,123,522)                               | $11,688,859                        | $9,565,337                                  |

* NOTE: FY2009 - FY2010 City portion of Tax Cap formula included both City and county amount. School portion included both local and state portions. After FY2012, county and state school portions not included in overall Tax Cap formula.